Spring Concert 2017

American Voices

Join us for our final concert of the 2016-17 season!

The West Village Chorale is perhaps most at home performing the music of American composers, and this beautifully eclectic program spans early American music and traditional spirituals to 20th century classics by Barber, Bernstein, Copland, Thompson and Whitacre. Also included are choral gems by Abbie Betinis and Morton Lauridsen, and the premiere of Thomas Jefferson Peters' "Good-Night" commissioned by the WVC.

A reception with light refreshments will follow, where we will toast the conclusion of another tuneful WVC season!
